

Keep Her In Mind

Donny Osmond

Something about how she moves me, soothes me
Whispers my name and I'm rendered helpless

My defenses are broken now
I'm lost in this love and there's no way out

I'm gonna keep her in my mind
Just to keep her out of my heart
'Cause I don't really need to fall in love
Before we even start

I know inside that she's the angel of my soul
She's the answer to my prayer
I know I'd better keep her out of sight because
They say that love is blind
So I'll just keep her in mind

She is so intoxicating, amazing
Her eyes burn like fire and I'm frozen, broken

All my defenses desert me now
I'm trying to speak but my words don't make a sound

Keep her out of my soul
Always keep her where I can't lose control
Oh no, I'm falling, I feel it
I just can't believe it
How much that I need her right now
I don't wanna, I don't wanna fall

I know inside that she's the angel of my soul
She's the answer to my prayer
I'll keep her out of sight because
They say that love is blind
So I'll just keep her in mind

She's my angel, she's my soul
I don't want to lose control
Intoxicating, so amazing
