Some say i am skin-deep some say i ain't sincere but believe me
i'll always tell you what you want to hear but i never told you no, i never told you

how i fucked my friends i've got promises to break and friendships left to kill don't kid yourself a middlefinger pay the bill and i never told you... i fucked 'em all and i fucked 'em raw
