Donots

If I don't sleep, nobody sleeps, code of the street
You know my deeds, I sow seeds and I chop trees
Keep it straight every day, last dance, bombs away
You people take a beating
Say my name, say my name
When you're with me, my heart beats, my heart speaks
One mind is loud, two make a crowd, three make a scene
We're meant to take the lead so drop the latch key,
kids
Turn off your TV
Say my name, say my name
Well I state my case under oath and lie
And I shout my truth right at the sky
(Whooohoooooooo....)
(Look, we got swords for spines, we have diamonds for hearts, we got no destination but we're willing to go there and we are angry!
What do they have? They've got nothing! They are nothing!
They're nothing but vacant minds living in vacant homes.
Let's make a vow, right now!
Let's not grow up like them, alright?)
Said I state my case under oath and lie
And shout my truth right at the sky
(Whooohoooooooo....)
And if one day I'll say good-bye
I'll leave my mark in the sands of time
(Whooohoooooooo....)
