

Outshine The World

Donots

they called me wannabe and they used to pick on me but this time their laughter doesn't fit the joke well, i have set my goals when i've seen them sell their souls and this time their laughter doesn't fit the joke i know it's all inside of me i am the energy i'm gonna take my chance (i know i can achieve it)
(the one i've always been awaiting) i've got to take a stand (yeah, today i will)
outshine the world
they say the winner takes it all and the loser takes the fall well, this time they're not gonna take me in, no! cause i've got what it takes and i am playing for high stakes you know, this time i'm sure to win have my say
here to stay
