

Practice

Donots

by now i know all of your insults and you know how to break my bones i've counted all those broken windows and all the times you threw those stones we both know you'll never change at all don't think i'll forget cause what's said is said hey hey, i practiced hating you all the pounding fists broken promises (got them on my list)
i practiced hating you (and i know what hurts, too) past the point of getting even (past the point) i know what i could do to you (yeah, i know i could) don't think that i'm a moving target (i don't think so) by now an excuse is overdue, yeah
