

The One Song

Donots

here's that special song for you the one you always wanted me to do it's the one that i've sung too late the one which turns regret to rage can you hear my voice die away?
can you feel how the music fades till only the distorted noise remains?
(it's killing me)
i wonder why it took so long to write an ordinary love song and now that i know what i wanted to say i guess you do not listen anyway can you feel it in the dischords?
can you feel it in the rhythm?
got that feeling in my stomach and it's killing me
