

Comin' to You

Donovan

There's a hole in the Iron Curtain
And the levis are pouring through
And the yellow kids want their train
And the black kids want one too.

There's a riff in the Russian rocker
There's a punk on the Chinese junk
A common bond in soccer
Where the [?] aren't monk.

It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin' to you
It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin' to you.

Go to the shelter, do not be alarmed
Follow our instructions and you will not be harmed
Take the tablets in the green box, in the morning take the blue
Citizens, be confident, we are fighting for you.

It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin' to you
It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin' to you.

It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin' to you
It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin', it's comin', it's comin'
It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin', it's comin', it's comin'
It's comin' to you, it's comin' to you
It's comin', it's comin', it's comin', it's comin'
