

Living for the Love Light

Donovan

What am I doing? Where am I going?
What am I living for?
Life would be an awful bore
If it wasn't for the one I adore
Living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

What can I tell you? What do I know?
I don't know any answer
All I know is here I am
All I know is I am the man
Who's living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

Living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

Night is upon me and I can't see no stars
Out in the country and I can't hear no cars
The fire is dying as I must some day
Living for you only, baby, what can I say?
Baby, what can I say?

All I know is here I am
All I know is I am the man
Who's living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

Living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

Living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

Living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

I'm living for the love light in your eye
Otherwise I think I'd die.

Living for the love light in your eye ...
