

Mr. Wind

Donovan

Where are you going, oh wind of the morning?
Your slippers are showing and you're still yawning
(To waken the wee ones, to tickle their lashes)
(Breakfast of milkbuns, toy spoons and splashes).

Good morning, Mr. Wind
Good morning, Mr. Wind
Where are you going?
(Where are we going?)

Where are you going so tinily singing?
Where are you blowing the kiss you are making
(To ponds to make rippings, to blow out the matches)
(Lift up the gull wings when the plough scratches?)

Good morning, Mr. Wind
Good morning, Mr. Wind
Where are you going?
(Where are we going?)

Oh pa du bo bo ...

Good morning, Mr. Wind
Good morning, Mr. Wind
Where are you going?
(Where are we going?)

Where are you going, oh wind of the morning?
Your slippers are showing and you're still yawning
(To waken the wee ones, to tickle their lashes)
(Breakfast of milkbuns, toy spoons and splashes).

Good morning, Mr. Wind
Good morning, Mr. Wind
Where are you going?
(Where are we going?)

Oh pa du bo bo ...