

No Hunger

Donovan

No hunger, no thirst
No disease, no pain
No poverty or loss
No loneliness again.

No tragedy, no grief
No sorrow, relief
No egoist in power
No poisoning the flower.

Boys and girls in every land
Go hungry even now, in long lines they stand
Food is burnt to balance banks
Taxes go to purchase tanks
Sorrow for so many, joy for few
They need you, what can you do?

No hunger, no thirst
No disease, no pain
No poverty or loss
No loneliness again.

No hunger.
