

Sadness

Donovan

Sadness is in your eye
Who could have made you cry?
My lullaby can fly you out of there
Roll along the sleepy dream, deep
Roll along the sleepy dream, deep

Salty tear down your cheek
Drowning the words you speak.
My lullaby can dry your every care
Roll along the sleepy dream, deep
Roll along the sleepy dream, deep

Sweet dream, my baby lie
Here in my arms tonight
Don't cry I'll hold you tight,
And soothe all your worriy away.

My lullaby can fly you out of there
Roll along the sleepy dream, deep
Roll along the sleepy dream.

Sweet dream, my baby lie
Here in my arms tonight
Don't cry I'll hold you tight,
And soothe all your worries away.

Sadness is in your eye
Who could have made you cry?
Sadness is in your eye
Sadness...
