Donovan

Outside our little garden gate, far over hill and down The bright road, the long white road goes winding through the t own.

I often peep between the bars when I am tired of play I wish that I could follow it some happy summer day.

... pass beneath the trees ...