

Where Is She?

Donovan

Springtime for me has gone, where is she?
Waking in the blue dawn, where is she?
Someday I'll say to her: I am here!
Smiling her words will be: I am cheer!

I know she'll wait for me
Well, I know she'll wait for me to come to her.
Springtime for me has gone, where is she?
Waking in the blue dawn, where is she?

Lazy adorn and adorn she will be
Drowsy sleepy with blue I am here.
I know she'll wait for me
Well, I know she'll wait for me to come to her.
