

Earthless

Doom:vs

Earthless bleak creation
Drowning in the void
Leaving me nameless

In the white, cold light
A divide, I long...
...to understand
The rapture
This rapture within

A mist of broken sorrow
An unforgiving storm
Piercing the sheer existence of
A life of no belonging

Inside the womb
Sleepers of the quiet Earth
This flesh, shaped like a tomb
We are Earthless

Wretched existence
The eclipse of my sun
Wielded by the heartless

In sorrow, we fall
To slumber forever
These limbs, so weary
Freezing...useless and old

A mist of broken sorrow
An unforgiving storm
Piercing the sheer existence of
A life of no belonging

Sleepers of the womb
Inside the wounded Earth
Drowning the colours of life...
Into death...

Shaped like a tomb
This body, my flesh
Silence descends
We are earthless
