

Half Light

Doom:vs

Callous and empty
Lifeless image
Echoes, then echoes
Strangles my will
To become something else

Hope will perish within me
And lower me with a smile
Rid me from my burden
Let me sleep for a while

Days go by
Nothing changes
Nothing lives
In this half-light existence
Anymore

Dead silent
Inner turmoil
Half-light existence

Breathless, thoughts of dying
These moments never fail
To remind me

Hope will perish within me
And lower me with a smile
Rid me from my burden
Let me see sleep for a while

Days go by
Nothing changes
Nothing lives
In this half-light existence
Anymore
