

Better Not to Joke

Dope Stars Inc.

we have the turboright to say we want the music. not to pray and keep on sharing leaving no doubt we leave no friend outside the game hey we want the music for the rich and poor hey you cannot block it anytime In every place we are gonna roll back anything we desire is ready on the web

ready on the web
ready on the web

There can't be freedom with a gate so Who's gonna be outside the game? so we're not a baby just to keep shut whooo
whatever you can try again just fail the only tards who make a jump whoo are just the people from the big corps hey hey
but a new morning is going to pitch their thoughts Cause everything is just turning back the same

It's no one fault
Nothing on the globe
It's no one fault
have the right to own It's no one fault
anything we pwn
It's no one fault
Better not to joke
