

Dressed Inside Your Fear

Dope Stars Inc.

you keep to hold for what is not or what it used to be there's nothing more just nothing more to turn around and see you know it's not for that of you the people had to say your ready now. wrap up the dawn. it's better run away i got a feeling inside of me a feeling that makes me fall down from the status of a living being nothing to win nothing to lose. I never felt i ever had to care i never choose the way. only i could show myself dressed inside of me

dressed inside dressed inside your fear
