

Nothing Is Left

Dope Stars Inc.

See what I told you are all my thoughts
Yelling all that, blasting the throat
Yeah I can see there's no chance to hope
I need some rest
I need some load
Now what the fuck have you got with me
should I start to howl
Should I start to scream
Nothing can change in your eyes I know
Leaving all that fuck'up in a row

It's just a cloak
A ridiculous act
No more than a show
I cannot forget
I'm close to explode
I really forgot
This life is a joke
Nothing to trust

Nothing is left to know to hope
Nothing is left to say to grow
Nothing is left bus nothing is gone

Hey what I told you is just my thought
Keep it like that, [but] it's not a joke
Yeah I can't stand when you have to crawl
To understand
Respect your role
Now what the fuck have you got with me
All is foregone
All is just sealed
No one can change what I think, you know
All is just black
All is just gone

Today I've written all my wishes
Waiting to get 'em unfolded
To say, to state, to stop
All my screams
Giving a chance to grow
And fuck it forever
Giving a chance to grow
It's told
SO let's put on a stone
The time is set to go
