

Happy Endings

Doris Day

Bring back happy endings,
Where the good guys always win.
Give me Santa and the Easter Bunny
Make me smile again.
Bring back happy endings,
Where the good guys always win.
Like Peter Pan in Never-Never Land:
Make me smile again.
We'll send the tears away
Send them back to yesterday
We'll learn to laugh again
Dry our eyes and see the sad times end.
If you love happy endings,
Then let's go back once more.
And dream a lot of Camelot*
The way it was before.
Look through the childrens eyes
And life becomes a lullaby.
Send all the tears away.
Send them back to yesterday.
Bring back happy endings,
Where the good guys always win.
Give me Santa and the Easter Bunny
Make me smile again.
