

Ready, Willing and Able

Doris Day

I'm ready, willing & able
And honey, now it's up to you
So lay your cards on the table
And tell me what you plan to do
I'm ready, able & willing
To join you in a little fun
But I won't take second billing
I've got to be your number one
I'm ready to give you my heart, dear
I'm willing to hand you the key
And I'm able to say from the start, dear
It's never belonged to anyone else but me
Oh, I'm ready, I'm willing & able
So if you want a love, that's true
Just lay your cards on the table
'Cause honey, now it's up to you
I'm ready
Oh yes, you know I'm ready, baby
I'm able
Oh yes, you know I'm able, baby
I'm willing
Oh yes, you know I'm willing, baby
Now I've stated my condition
I've got lots of ammunition
Ready, willing & I'm able
So if you want a love that's true
Just lay your cards on the table
'Cause honey
Honey, now it's up to you
