

Summer Has Gone

Doris Day

Seagull cries on rain-swept beaches
Tear-washed eyes and pain love teaches
Remind me, Summer has gone

Empty lovers lanes are lonely
Bitter sweet refrains will only
Remind me, Summer has gone

Summer's a dance and sing time
To lovely songs of Springtime
But Autumn comes to steal all the joys away

Crocus buds are closed with frost now
Summer time has loved and lost now
The sweet dreams, faded and grey

Though Autumn's flaming colours may blind you
Tears will fill your eyes to remind you
Love has flown and Summer has gone away

Summer has gone
Summer has gone
