

Alpha Female

Dot Allison

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

She didn't want to conquer you
Another misconception
It tasted strange
She can't explain
But it's all forgotten now

Her fingerprints
Are on your hands
That's all she's left for you
You just untangled all her words
They're inexpensive now

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

You walked the world
It's almost over now
Your satellite escape each day

You've got an alpha female muse
A little introspection
She isn't there to be misused
The shallowest reflection

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost

She's lost
Words mean nothing
She's lost
