Colour Me

Dot Allison

Now I'm sliding It's intriguing So young yet Too old to learn

That summer is the thirst
The river always runs dry first

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

As the tides they Draw and close And the seasons Turn again

Will the moon still Wax and wane? Will you always Color the day?

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

Now I'm sliding
It's intriguing
This is heaven now)
So young yet
Too old to learn

That summer is the thirst
The river always runs dry first

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven

You're in heaven This is heaven now You're in heaven
