

Tomorrow Never Comes

Dot Allison

You're sailing away,
To another shore
My heartache today,
I can't tell you anymore

And I thought I saw your shadow
In the street today
But that was yesterday,
Oh that was yesterday

With a little courage, in time
You might forgive me
With a little loving, in time
You might forgive me

Believe me I know
It's been hard for you
There's never an easy way
To let it go

And I dreamt that you were telling me
You dreamt of me
But now I'm waking up,
I think I'm waking up

With a little courage, in time
You might forgive me
With a little loving, in time
You might forgive me

And I thought I saw your jacket
In my room today
But that was yesterday,
Oh was that yesterday?

With a little courage, in time
You might forgive me
With a little loving, in time
You might forgive me
