Where We Belong

Listen to what I gotta tell you Are you ready for what's coming now I've been hanging on to the secret Where do we go for here Is this road unclear All this time, you were next to me This perfect lie, which only you can't see Open my eyes to where we belong We can justify now, where we standing Bigger crime, to pretend There's only one way to where we belong It's time to become a addiction But how are you supposed to know Your image is right there before me Even tough I'm all alone up here Is this road unclear All this time, you were next to me This perfect lie, which only you can't see Open my eyes to where we belong We can justify now, where we standing Bigger crime, to pretend There's only one way to where we belong This is where we are We just can't hide Nothing but the truth Are you ready for the right Are you ready for the right All this time, you were next to me This perfect lie, which only you can't see Open my eyes to where we belong We can justify now, where we standing Bigger crime, to pretend There's only one way to where we belong All this time, you were next to me This perfect lie, which only you can't see Open my eyes to where we belong We can justify now, where we standing Bigger crime, to pretend There's only one way to where we belong Where we belong Where we belong Where we belong

Dotan