

One Of Those Days

Doug Supernaw

I've had one too many, as if you couldn't tell
And I called you from the bottom of my sinking spell
I know we agreed that it'd be easier on me not to talk to you
Or see you until I get over you
But my heart has left me no choice
So excuse me, but I've just gotta hear your voice
'cause I'm having one of those days
When your memory won't go away
Tomorrow I'll be okay
But I'm just having one, one of those days

I'm getting by one day at a time
It's not nearly as often that you cross my mind
But early this morning felt it coming over me
Tried to fight it back, can't hold it back
Can't help it that this call's in vain
Ah but it's not a storm you know it's just a little rain
I'm just having one of those days
When your memory won't go away
Tomorrow I'll be okay
But I'm just having one, one of those days
Yes I'm just having one, one of those days
