Sorry sometimes

Down By Law

You're such a sweet girl I'm so sorry when ni lose my cool Seems like sometimes I most appreciate that When I'm far way from you And I know that's not how It's supposed to be, o.k. And it's usually not, but Somehow it is today You're such a cool girl And I really think that every day And just to prove it's true, I'm dreaming of you When you're a thousand miles away And I know that's just how It's supposed to be, o.k. But I forget when you're Close to me I'm sorry sometimes Don't build up walls of Toughness to protect your Self from me I'm still the boy you love, And you're the girl for me Those walls are going to fall Those walls are going to fall I'm sorry sometimes
