This is my story and I want you to judge for yourself who is in the right, and who is in the wrong now listen up as I explain (european hip-hop to the core and I'm gonna give you more) (check it out) it's my life! yeah, come on yeah, come on

Here come these verbs, listen to these words when I kick off my lip, verses that I spit my life has been sick and fall away into the glass I've been shaked and kicked and broke into the last I physically abused my wife until she left me destiny for me has ended all tragicly look at me I stand in the mirror look into my eyes, all the pain, my life has been ended my trainer thought he's beyond psycho-reasonably evil thoughts in my head, I'm startin' to season me she's took away my kids and slept with many men and now my problems, with this girl are coming to the screamin' visions, (what I asked)?, shall I glance (?) I gather my gun, my knife, my mask a lunatic like me don't really cares who stands in the way now journey with me, as I creep away

i'm creepin' away tonight
i'm creepin' away tonight
this is my life
and this is my knife I'm off, too sad
a murder in the shadows night

4x

you think that I'm gone when I go away then you're comin' for me in the morning

Now I have dried, I run, duck, I hide my knife is my dirty deal, adrenalin bleeds in my mind these guilty feelins are frozen these vicious slashes, from my mind has been chosen I'm gonna commit a serious crime I have to slice strictly, I'm running out of time I bounce on my victim quick, this is the mind of a lunatic blood is droppin' off my hand and poorin' down my sleeve I jumped in my car quickly as I leave I see the glimpses of their faces and they're tracin' in the back of my mind I'm swingin' them paces I take my mask off and I drop my knife justice has been avenged in the night I know they will trace this to where I stay and that's the end of how I creeped away

Yo, I'm creepin' away and I'm not gon' get caught 'cause I'm me, and I'm the master check, huh, you can't get me I'ma always gon' get away just like O.J. I'm gon' get away I'm gon' get away because I'm me
