

So Positive

Down with Webster

The grass is greener on the other guys lawn, but I'll mow mine now 'til it
Looks right
I'm looking at my glass and it looks half empty, I'm still gonna chug that
Sh*t tonight
Wanna go places, and I'm trying to pack, but I'm stuck in my basement,
Trying to rap
Fell down once, but I'm climbing back, and I can see my dreams in a shiny
Plaque
Sometimes she plays hard to get, you can't believe in those promises, when Your out for bread and condiments, because you can't pay her bills with Compliments.
I know where I'm going, I just wanna get there
Got a lot of shoes, and I'm runnin' in my best pair. But my minds on the Next pair, and where I'm gonna be next year.

I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know, I'll be alright now.
I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know, that I'll be alright now.
I don't mind, I've been going through this my whole life
And I know, I can't fly, but I close my eyes and I try.
Whoaaaa

I've been thinking about the words that I can't write
I'm singing all the words in my head
I'm not thinking about the girls that I can't get
I'm thinking about the girl in my bed
I'm not worried that I'm going with the crowd
I'm too busy worrying about doing it alone
I'm not thinking about the lineup at the club now,
I'm thinking about how I'm getting home

I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know I'll be alright now
I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know that I'll be alright
I don't mind, I've been going through this my whole life
And I know I can't fly, but I close my eyes and I try
I don't mind, I've been going through this my whole life
And I know I can't fly, but I close my eyes and I try

Cause life keeps on moving on, and you didn't write the scripts
So there's no way that you would know, what you're getting out of it
And as long as the truth is known, and the money is counterfeit
But if it's all is a million, then I'm liking the sound of it

I'm not a superhero, and that's all I can say
'Cause when the times get tough, the tough don't fly away
It's almost over now, but back in the beginning
We had nothing to lose, it was time we started winning
Lets get the undergrounds, suns out, stars shine
Not that were all-stars, just that our starts align
And you can do it too, and hold your own hand
Just keep on doing you, follow your own plan!

I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know, I'll be alright now
I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know, I'll be alright now
I don't mind, I've been going through this my whole life
And I know I can't fly, but I close my eyes and I try
I don't mind, I've been going through this my whole life
And I know I can't fly, but I close my eyes and I try

Whoaaa (x16)

I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know, I'll be alright now

I'm so, I'm so positive, and I know, I'll be alright now
