

I Scream

Down

All scorn me
A monster should be feared
Witch hunt blame
Regret and damn the day
I scream
Fallen leaves
From the same family tree
Wind blown halves
Regret is all that's left, all that's left
Words cut deeply, no secrecy
So long since seeing, my life time appealing
The two are not healing
I cannot help feeling regret, regret
Reflecting on our memories
We know the pains of living
And I know he's seeing both of we Regret he would not want to be
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
I scream
