

This Is Only The Beginning

Downhere

It's only beginning it's true
Just when I thought my time was through
Oh the stirring I feel inside
Is the voice I know I cannot deny

This is only the beginning
Press ahead forget what's behind,
Forget what's behind
And the good work,
He is still perfecting
A new name, a new dream, a new life
And this is only the beginning
This is only the beginning

I've seen things I never thought I'd believe
The hand of God brings about mysteries
Rolling waves, rushing wind and water
Swept away and dripping with wonder

Rolling waves, rushing wind and water
Swept away and dripping with wonder
It's His calling, it's His fire
This dream is real,
It's His Spirit inside me.
