

Prostitutionalized

Downset

Gots no Milli Vanilli in me, sincerity constantly, no prefabrication, prefabrication! The words live free. Question the intentions of this alternative generation, and do we even realize all that we do effects all life? Let us not stifle statement beneath false egos, style, or trends, or we surrender that which can salvage a human life. Can't prostitutionalize it! Will we let the external taint the internal? Be the brother in struggle, but don't sucker yourself. Our words exceed the emnence of the musical. Is 'Doc Martin' moe important than a movement, or is it so cheap that a passing style is what makes you sleep? You must understand the value of your light! Don't prostitutionalize it! These eyes will not sleep! I am more than a musical byproduct.
