Downstait

No, this is my life
You don't get to choose what's wrong and what's right
Let me run the rest of my days
Let me find the pleasures, let me learn the pains

Are you lost?
On your own?
Is it hard to find a reason?
All the doors are locked, you're out of time
The walls are closing in
Are you blind?
In the dark?
Is the future in the distance?
Maybe it's not too late to deviate
When nothing intersects, you just connect

No, you don't get a say
This is not a protest, this is not a phase
Let me go, go and see the world
You're not living my life, give me the control

Are you lost?
On your own?
Is it hard to find a reason?
All the doors are locked, you're out of time
The walls are closing in
Are you blind?
In the dark?
Is the future in the distance?
Maybe it's not too late to deviate
When nothing intersects, you just connect

Are you lost?
On your own?
Is it hard to find a reason?
All the doors are locked, you're out of time
The walls are closing in
Are you blind?
In the dark?
Is the future in the distance?
Maybe it's not too late to deviate
When nothing intersects, you just connect
