

Nothing Left To Give

Downstait

This has gone on for far too long
I'm sick of acting like nothing's wrong
I know exactly what's on your mind
And see, I tried to take what's mine
I tried to leave things as they were
But I can't listen anymore
I know just what you're trying to do
And I can see right through you!

I can't give you all I own
I keep falling over
Feel like I gave you everything
Now there's nothing left to give

Sometimes the world can flood your mind
And if let go can make you blind
I kept it all built up inside
Now all the shit you talk won't slide
Through all the lies, I've let it fly
You're words are derelict and I
Refuse to hear what you have to say
This time we do things my way!

I can't give you all I own
I keep falling over
Feel like I gave you everything
I can't give you all I own
I keep falling over
Feel like I gave you everything

Now you know, who I am
And I don't feel the least bit guilty
All I am, you can't see
Things can't get much better than this
But when you fall, you'll be right next to me

I can't give you all I own
I keep falling over
Feel like I gave you everything
I can't give you all I own
I keep falling over
Feel like I gave you everything
Now there's nothing left
