

Dreamingdeadgirls

Doyle

What turns me on the most, is a girl without a pulse i dont need no heartbeat beating inside an empty chest is enough what goes on in her mind when her mind has rotted away i dont need no one to tell me its love when the flesh begins to decay but i need to know what do the dead dream after they die?

i dream of dead girls every night tonight ill find one to lay beside the dreaming dead girls are always on my mind the quickest way to the heart is to cut through her fucking chest i never minded the scars but i hate to clean the mess
