

I see you strapping on your velvet smile behind me,
although you drown in innocence...
Go on and swallow down my breath, the one that kills you,
the sun goes down behind you eyes...
Come back to see, it's always been the same shit,
climbing right up before it falls...
Come back to see, it's always been the same deal,
I cannot wait to see you fall...

Rising - You knock me off my feet again, yeah,
I won't give up until your off...
Rising - You knocked me off my feet today, yeah,
I won't give up before your done...

I see just lies behind the truth you think you tell me,
under your breath there flows a smile...
For quite a while the darkness spread it was amazing,
and getting better all the time...
Come back in greed, I bet you want the same shit,
it's climbing up right as we speak...
Come back I said, I think you'll get the same deal,
I kick you down to see you fall...

Rising - You knock me off my feet again, yeah,
I won't give up until your off...
Rising - You knocked me off my feet today, yeah,
I won't give up before your done...

Rising - You knock me off my feet again, yeah,
I won't give up until your off...
Rising - You knocked me off my feet today, yeah,
I won't give up before your done...
I won't give up before your done...
I won't give up before your done...
