The Flood

Die, yeah you will have to burn Cry, and you will not be heard And I will watch you hang below the sky... Why, I am the burning flame Lie, no I won't ease your pain And I won't leave until I've burned the ground...

Before I have to go I'll tell the tide to flood you all Before I take control I'll be reminded by you all I'm the untold...

Die, no you will have to learn Cry, no I won't go unheard And I will watch you from a higher ground... Why, you've reached the boiling point Lie, no I won't ease the strain And I won't leave until you all have drowned...
