Is This A Party Or A Dick Measuring Contest?

Dr. Acula

The bar fills up and the drinks star mixing A cluster fuck of shame dispensed to lower your neck By the time the bar keep hits the table My sights are set on tonight's last pathetic attempt Movin like a huntress across the dance floor We meet at the waist and re-discover our flaws She's shaking hard when I sniffle so softly She drops her glass and knees right down to the floor As I show her to the basement apartment That has been built on endless nights like this I wont stop you your on your knees baby please I understand that this might might come as a shocker Don't get upset you were somewhat still worth it But at the top you gotta flip this shit fast
