

There goes my baby
There goes my bride
Feels like the first time,
Time and time again
She was the one,
she was the only
she was a mystery
imagine my surprise.

I went to London down to the dungeon
I've been to hell if I've been any other way
If I'm not mistaken I wasn't taken
I found my own damn way down there for love.
But can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?

I met her in a costume
Underneath a full moon
Love from the stormiest skies.
The whole masquerade stopped
Yet another shoe dropped
Just another kind of disguise

I'm holding on, don't ask me why
I am afraid the only answer is a lie.
I tell myself the strangest stories,
I ain't a crow I found a crooked way to fly oh love
But can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?

Love can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?
Love can it last all my life, as it passes?
