

Chained To Your Memory

Dr. Hook

I gently kiss her lips, touch her with my finger tips
Searching for the love I miss, you once gave to me
She is warm here by my side,
I should be satisfied
It's sad to realise
I'm still in love with you

'Cos I'm chained to your memory
Tied and bound,
I can't get free
There's got to be another love for me
There's got to be someone to set me free

She holds me close to her,
I love the sweet things she whispers
But only my memory stirs, my heart still isn't free

'Cos I'm chained to your memory
Tied and bound,
I can't get free
There's got to be another love for me
There's got to be someone to set me free

'Cos I'm chained to your memory
Tied and bound,
I can't get free
There's got to be another love for me
There's got to be someone to set me free
