

Love Monster

Dr. Hook

Eyes bright in the midnight moon
Lock up the boys, tie down the girls
Love monster's on the loose again
Teeth flash, a blinding grin

Hot dreams in the midnight hour
Girls in the window beg please come in
Body hard, muscles strain
Love monster's on the loose again

All his lovers remember his hands
Driving them crazy like a Superman
For some it was enough, for some his teeth
And some just quiver and faint at the memory
From New York City to Hollywood
From Tokyo to New Orleans

Jungle drums had beat it out

Love monster's on the loose again
Driving them crazy like a Superman
All his lovers remember his hands
For some it was enough, for some his teeth
From New York City to Hollywood
And some just quiver and faint at the memory

From Tokyo to New Orleans
Jungle drums had beat it out
Love monster's on the loose again

Hot dreams in the midnight hour
Girls in the window beg please come in
Body hard, muscles strain
All his lovers remember his hands
Love monster's on the loose again
Driving them crazy like a Superman
For some it was enough, for some his teeth

And some just quiver and faint at the memory

Some just quiver and faint at the memory
Some just quiver and faint at the memory
