

That Didn't Hurt Too Bad

Dr. Hook

Come on over here my brand new baby
You look so alone on a night so fine
Won't you take your trembling lips
And kiss me one more time
Yeah, you're gonna do just fine

Oh, that didn't hurt too bad now, did it
That shouldn't make you sad
Cos it's only love you're running from
That didn't hurt too bad now, did it

I'm gonna handle you like a baby
I'm gonna love you like you never knew
It'll be everything and more
Than you ever thought it could
You're gonna be so good

Oh, that didn't hurt too bad now, did it
That shouldn't make you sad
Cos it's only love you're running from
That didn't hurt too bad now, did it

Wasn't it everything and more
Than you ever thought it could
Ooh baby, you were so good

Oh, that didn't hurt too bad now, did it
That shouldn't make you sad
Cos it's only love you're running from
That didn't hurt too bad now, did it

That didn't hurt too bad now, did it
That shouldn't make you sad
Cos it's only love you're running from
That didn't hurt too bad now, did it
