Come on over here my brand new baby You look so alone on a night so fine Won't you take your trembling lips And kiss me one more time Yeah, you're gonna do just fine

Oh, that didn't hurt too bad now, did it That shouldn't make you sad Cos it's only love you're running from That didn't hurt too bad now, did it

I'm gonna handle you like a baby
I'm gonna love you like you never knew
It'll be everything and more
Than you ever thought it could
You're gonna be so good

Oh, that didn't hurt too bad now, did it That shouldn't make you sad Cos it's only love you're running from That didn't hurt too bad now, did it

Wasn't it everything and more Than you ever thought it could Ooh baby, you were so good

Oh, that didn't hurt too bad now, did it That shouldn't make you sad Cos it's only love you're running from That didn't hurt too bad now, did it

That didn't hurt too bad now, did it That shouldn't make you sad Cos it's only love you're running from That didn't hurt too bad now, did it
