

Pain

Dr. Sin

Biding my time, in the still of the night
I'm wondering why
Oh, why I'm wasting my time
I'm feelin' so bad, thinkin' of what we had
I never really knew
That I was losing you

Now I have no reason, no reason to smile
I look in the mirror, I can't find myself

Something's not right,
I've been losing my mind
I've been stuck inside the pain
Up all night feel the pressure of life
I don't think you understand
I turn my head see an empty bed
Oh, I wish that you were here
Everything has changed so much
Since she left me alone, now I'm on my own

Day after day, I try to find a way
Prayin' for the rain
To wash away the pain
So many times, how I've looked to the sky
I couldn't see the light
Oh, why was I so blind
