Biding my time, in the still of the night I'm wondering why
Oh, why I'm wasting my time
I'm feelin' so bad, thinkin' of what we had
I never really knew
That I was losing you

Now I have no reason, no reason to smile I look in the mirror, I can't find myself

Something's not right,

I've been losing my mind

I've beenstuck inside the pain

Up all night feel the pressure of life

I don't think you understand

I turn my head see an empty bed

Oh, I wish that you were here

Everything has changed so much

Since she left me alone, now I'm on my own

Day after day, I try to find a way
Prayin' for the rain
To wash away the pain
So many times, how I've looked to the sky
I couldn't see the light
Oh, why was I so blind
