

Ode To Revenge

Dr. Steel

There was a toy
A very strange, enchanted toy
That said it traveled very far, very far
To this reality
A little strange
With the power to change
And with it's brain
It said to me
The greatest thing
You'll ever learn
Is to get revenge
And watch everybody burn!

To all the prisoners of nine to five jobs
Stuck in cubicle cells
To all the baggers of groceries and merchandise
Trapped in suburban hell
To all the people stuck in traffic jams
The corporate gagged and bound
To all the people who've lost faith in the system
Tired of being pushed around

Let's burn it all down
Let's burn it all down
Let's burn it all down
Let's burn it to the ground.

We've kept our eyes closed
And our wallets wide open
Yes we keep on hoping for a better day
But good 'ol Eden's closed
And they keep on feeding us old
Pre packaged, scare tactic, minimum wage

But they ain't foolin me
It's the same old trap
I saw those demolition blasts clear as day
Wake up and smell the chemtrails, Jack
'Cause this shit ain't going away unless we...

Let's burn it all down
Let's burn it all down
Let's burn it all down
Let's burn it to the ground.

We are gathered here today
To bring upon the end
We hold the change in our hands
I can feel the power
And I can hear your voices backing mine
Because you know, yes you know I understand
No, you're not alone
Step forward and come home
With your mind you shall be saved
This is the only way
To build a better day

So let me hear you say

Let's burn it all down

Burn
