Rocket Ship

Dragonette

Put a face to the microphone
Shout it out a lil' louder
Gonna get this whole world in the know
I'm all done with the medicine
Gonna tap a little dance and
You follow the moves, my stockings run

Ooo-oo-oo,
Ooo-oo-oo,

Pleasure was a punishment
But you turn me sweet from sour
Now these claws are scratching him for more
Yes please give me another treat
Who beats what you got, no one
Your cookies' cream ain't bitter, yum

Ooo-oo-oo,
Ooo-oo-oo,

Ah, ah
You launch your rocketship
Into the empty pit in my heart
And now I'm full of your love
Wuh-oh yeah
I launch your rocketship
Into the empty pit in my heart
I'm all filled up with your love

Never been in a magazine
You ain't seen me on the TV
But you pin me to a poster to the wall
I sure like what you're getting at
Just don't tell me where you learned that
Voodoo your guru taught you well

Ooo-oo-oo
Ooo-oo-oo

Pleasure or a punishment,
Send me your mixed up message
Just say the part and I'll play the role
As soft as cotton candy suddenly,
You shouldn't chain me
And always keep it corporal

Ooo-oo-oo
Ooo-oo-oo

Ah, ah
You launch your rocketship
Into the empty pit in my heart
And now I'm full of your love
Wuh-oh yeah
I launch your rocketship
Into the empty pit in my heart
I'm all filled up with your love

Put a face to the microphone
Shout out a little louder
Gonna get this whole world in the know
Put a face to the microphone
Shout out a little louder
Gonna get this whole world in the know

Put a face to the microphone
Shout out a little louder
Gonna get this whole world in the know
Put a face to the microphone
Shout out a little louder
Gonna get this whole world in the know

Ah, ah
You launch your rocketship
Into the empty pit in my heart
And now I'm full of your love
Wuh-oh yeah
I launch your rocketship
Into the empty pit in my heart
I'm all filled up with your love
