

True Believer

Dragonette

I don't play well with the other kids
They know that I'm dangerous
It's evident, I'm different
My punishment is eminent

They tell me that I'm no good
They say worse,
That I've got a curse,
And I know that it's true

But you, you make me better
You give me pleasure
It's just your effect on me, oooo
You make me sweeter
You give me fever
Now I'm a believer

I've had such a wicked time,
Kiss the boys and make them cry
Laugh and while I wave goodbye
They'd still like another try
Ordinary Dick and Tom, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John
If they knew who've I've become
What I've become
The spell I'm under is you,
You make me better
You give me pleasure
It's just your effect me, oooo
Taught me a lesson
Now I'm behaving
Must be what's best for me, oooo
You make me sweeter
You give me fever
Now I'm a believer'

Do you feel super '
I'm the new girl curled round your finger, oh
I've taken your potion and now I'm senseless, defenseless, a fool
The spell I'm under is you
It's you,
You're just what's come over me
You're who's gotten into me
You who did this thing to me
I used to be so bad'

But you, you make me better
You give me pleasure
Must be what's best for me, oooo
You make me sweeter
You give me fever, oooo
I'm a believer
I'm a believer
A true believer
I'm a believer
