

WAR!

DragonForce

Appearing out of nowhere you came into my life
And took control before I realized
I remember clearly the things you used to say
But now I see the truth behind your lies

I try to make you listen, I try to make you see
It's nothing but a total waste of time
You think you know better, and do what you do best
You love to bring us down, but now it's time you listen

Caught by the winds of the fury within
Leading slowly to your own demise
Why don't you see that you are your worst enemy?
And that fight must come to an end

War
Now this is war
Straight from the core
(Hear the wrath and the thunder)

War
Now this is war
Straight from the core
(Punishment from the skies)

War
Now this is war
Straight from the core
(I will crush your empire)

War
Now this is war
Straight from the core
(Empire of disguise)

Blinded and deluded
You think you've seen it all
You think you're always right and can't be wrong
Poisonous and selfish
You cannot face the truth
And blame the world for your pathetic life
You lie, you cheat, you backstab, and you're completely fake
Relying on a fragile house of cards
You always point the finger
How easy must it be?
To spend your life blindfolded and disguised

(Now listen)

Caught by the winds of the fury within
Leading slowly to your own demise
Why don't you see that you are your worst enemy?
And that fight must come to an end

War
Now this is war
Straight from the core
(Hear the wrath and the thunder)

War
Now this is war

Straight from the core
(Punishment from the skies)

War

Now this is war

Straight from the core
(I will crush your empire)

War

Now this is war

Straight from the core
(Empire of disguise)

For so many tears, for so many lies
For so many prophecies never fulfilled
I promise you now, you'll pay for your crimes
It ends tonight

Now this is war

We won't take it anymore

Now this is war

Now this is war

Now this is war

We won't take it anymore

Now this is war

Now this is war

Now this is war

Now this is war

Now this is war

Now this is war

War, war, war, war, war

Appearing out of nowhere you came into my life
And took control before I realized
I remember clearly the things you used to say
But now I see the truth behind your lies

(Now listen)

Caught by the winds of the fury within
Leading slowly to your own demise
Why don't you see that you are your worst enemy?
And that fight must come to an end

War

Now this is war

Straight from the core
(Hear the wrath and the thunder)

War

Now this is war

Straight from the core
(Punishment from the skies)

War

Now this is war

Straight from the core
(I will crush your empire)

War

Now this is war

Straight from the core
(Empire of disguise)
