Dragonland

Just one
One more and I'll give in Say Why you stalk me Everlasting crave
Fly through the light
In nethern realms you will find
No more deception
Exception
Now save your pride Walk this line
and I'll be your guide See your final hope
is fading with the light
that blinds your eyes Gaze high and see why you will know
in every vision
Thre's a truth that hides
Fly through the light
In nether realms you will find your right direction - perfection
Now save your pride
Walk this line
towards the other side
See your final hope

in never realms you will find
your right direction - perfection
